Name of Book: Who is J.K ROWLING?

Genre: Biography

The story is about a girl with a big imagination who wanted to become an author. She was the creator of the character Harry Potter. It is a very interesting book which tells us about the author of Harry Potter books.

I found this book to be very interesting as it is different from other books I usually read.

It is a non-fiction book which helped us learn more about the life of a person.

I think everybody should read it.
