Name of Book: The Talented Clementine

Genre: Adventure

The plot of the story was really exciting. It was about a girl named Clementine who went to school. Her teacher announced that they had to perform at a talent show. Now Clementine thought she had no talent so she asked almost everyone she knew but she thought their suggestions were boring.

Will she ever find a talent?

The main character was definitely Clementine. Without her the talent show would have been nothing. People would have had injuries and no one could have heard anything. it would have been a disaster.

The book was so amazing I finished it in two days it was funny and sometimes I got that feeling when you really want to know what happens next.
