

Uday Dabas, 5-A

Name of Book: Feluda series: Beware in the Graveyard

Genre Mystery

Who tried to dig up the grave of Thomas Godwin, a British chef who lived in Lucknow? Why and for what reason would someone try to dig up a century old grave? The 3 friends—Feluda, Topshe and Lalmohan Babu find themselves in a dangerous situation. Can they solve the mystery in the graveyard?

In this current mystery, the three of them are trying to find out who attacked Mr. Biswas and his connection to the mysterious Godwin family.

Feluda is a super smart man who solves the cases with the help of his cunning cousin Topshe and friend Lalmohan Babu.

Reading the book brought to mind people from my life--the character Topshe reminds me of my sister Rhea who is a very cunning person .His brother Feluda reminds me of my father who is really strong and smart and his best friend Lalmohan Babu is a lot like me hilarious and also intelligent from time to time a lot like myself.

I really like the book and recommend it world -wide as it is funny and it gives you a humongous amount of Indian history and anyone who likes mysterious books would read it all the time.
